AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK NOV. 6 TO 13 WILL BE OBSERVED

Beginning with a musical program by the Cameron Symphony Club at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, November 6, the public schools and the other civic organizations will turn their attention for the week to the cause of education.

The public schools have devoted considerable attention through October to a study of education, particularly in the United States and in Texas. They have also devoted considerable time to a study of the status of education in Cameron.

Classes Specialize

Classes in English, History and Mathematics have gathered much valuable material dealing with the public school. The history classes have specialized in the study of the history of education; the English classes have devoted some time to the study of objectives of education with emphasis upon character education and scholorship; the math classes have made a study of educational costs in the Cameron schools; the growth of the Cameron schools; the comparative sizes of the graduating classes, etc.

Program Arranged

A series of programs will be rendered by the students at the assembly period next week centering about the seven cardinal objectives of education: Health, The Mastery of the Tool Subjects, Worthy Home Membership, Choice of a Worthy Vocation, Proper Use of Leisure, Worthy Citizenship and Ethical Character.

Editorials by high school students will be published from time to time in the local papers as a part of the program to better acquaint the people with the aims, purposes and progress of the public schools.

Churches To Aid.

Some of the local churches will observe Sunday, November 13 as Education Sunday. On Tuesday, November 8 Dr. T. D. Brooks, dean of A. & M. College, will address the Cameron Lions Club on some pertinent subject.

A cordial invitation is extended to the people to attend all of the programs to be given at the high school throughout the week. These programs will begin promptly at 10 o'clock and will close at 10:30.

ANNUAL POPPY SALE WILL AID VETERANS

Edwin Hardy Post American Legion will hold its annual poppy drive Saturday, November 5th and November 11th.

The drive will be under the direction of Mrs. Cecil Culpepper and she will be assisted by a group of Yoe High School girls.

This drive is held annually by the Legion Post to raise funds to carry on its rehabilitation work among veterans who are confined to veterans hospitals and any not drawing compensation.

The poppies are made by the veterans in these hospitals, and they are paid a penny for each poppy.

It will be very much apreciated if the public will respond liberally to this drive, and help the Post do its bit in taking care of many of their buddies in hospitals.

Legion Convention For District Will Meet in Corsicana

The sixth district Legion Convention will be held in Corsicana November 5 and 6. A great crowd of Edwin Hardy Post members headed by Jim Baskin, W. R. Hoover, Guy T. Newton, Lee R. Clore, L. Van Perkins will attend the convention.

BUSINESS WOMEN OF LOCAL CLUB PUBLISH PAPER FOR PROGRAM

Carrying out the publicity program of the National Publicity Chairman for the Business & Professional Womens Club, the local Club held their regular monthly meeting at the Tex-La. Power Company. The room was attractively potted with plants and flowers.

A short business session was held by the preident, Mrs. Lotta Bigbee, at which time the play 'Dixie Black Birds' to be put on by a coach from Wayne P. Sewell Production Company of Atlanta, Ga. and home talent sponsored by the Cameron Club, Thursday, November 17 and Friday the 18th, was discussed.

The president turned the meeting over to the publicity chairman, who, with the assistance of each member, produced a composite newspaper, the chairman acting as editor of the paper, and each Club member had been previously assigned a part of the paper, and was asked to bring their work up for this meeting, choosing their subjects, such as specialty features, society, personals, classified column, and many features found in a newspaper. Each member read her contribution, affording many laughable incidents, and after reading them, handed them to the editor who compiled them into a newspaper, which was named 'Kameron Klub Klatter'.

At the close of the program the social hostess for the evening, Mrs. Lotta Bigbee, served a lovely chicken salad course with hot tea. She was assisted in serving by Misses Katherine Hargrove, Iva Wilson and Katherine Lovick.

BRADBURY' BIG SALE OPENS NOVEMBER 4

C. W. Bradbury, home merchant and supporter of home industry, announces a business expansion sale to open at his store in Cameron Friday morning, November 4th at 9 o'clock.

The store was closed all day Thursday for the opening on Friday morning. Thousands of sales bills have been mailed to the people of this section inviting them to this extraordinary sale. New merchandise is being offered in this sale. Mr. Bradbury, who recently purchased the interests of Louis S. Pierce in the business here stocks only standard brands of merchandise and everything quoted in this sale may be depended on.

Mr. Bradbury believes in his home town and had his printing furnished locally. This is not an ordnary sale, he points out, but a saving to the people on good merchandise. He does not stock inferior merchandise and when he announces a sale such as this one it is something of an event in the store life of Cameron. The sale will continue for some time and buying opportunities were never greater than at ths time at Bradbury's.

In this issue of the Herald will be found a message of interest for you.

Need for aid to Destitute Stressed by Chairities Here

The needs are greater than last year. Everyone should help. Why?

1. Duty as good citizen to provide food and medicine for the hungry and sick and wood and clothing for the needy.

2. Self protection—insurance against stealing and other crimes.

Every local application will be carefully investigated before aid is given, by one of the following committees: white cases investigated by Mrs. W. O. Triggs, Mrs. W. G. Gillis, Mrs. Cora Cammer and Mrs. J. P. Love; negro cases investigated by O. J. Thomas, A. Adams and W. H. Phillips; Mexican applicants investigated by R. B. Rylander and Ralph Cardenas.

Transients will be looked after by sheriff's force who will provide food for the hungry and a place to sleep for one night, and speed them on their way.

Under no circumstances will money be given to applicants for charity.

Everyone who is helped is expected to give work in return for food issued in order to keep their self respect and strengthen the morale of the community.

The Lions' Club has taken over the difficult job of keeping in touch with both the unimployed and those who donate—and the Rev. O. C. Acrey or someone of his committee will be at his office (telephone 733) between 8 and 9 a. m. each week day.

Nothing in this world is 100 per cent perfect. If we make a mistake please do not overlook it, but call the chairman, Rev. J. P. Love, and he will endeavor to correct any erros or misunderstanding.

In order that there be no duplication we ask you to co-operate in every way with the United Workers this season. Do not feed anyone who solicits you or give them anything, but send those who live in the city to Mrs. Cora Cammer, those who live in the county to Judge W. G. Gillis; those who are passing through to the sheriff's office, and we assure you that every case will have our careful attention.

SHARPE

Sharp and Davilla Tie Up in Second Game of Final Series.

The second game of the Sharpe Davilla finals ended at dark Sunday afternoon in an eight to eight deadlock on Davilla territory.

Hook forged the Cats in the lead in the second ending as he polled out a homer with two men on the bases, however, wit hthein heavy artillery the Davilla nine tallied the score later in the game. Numerous base hits were turned by both squads evenly divided among the players.

Arch Peele held down the mound position for the locals and Rosenburg caught, while the Davilla team shifted pitchers three times during the affair.

Since the neighbors tied up the Cats won the first game Sharp has two more chances at the victory, but they feel sure that next Sunday's game which will be played at Rockdale will be final, for the writers predict a 7 to 4 victory for the Cats.

Play at Sharpe Friday Night.

A three act comedy "A Minute Til Twelve' will be presented at the High School Auditorium next Friday night under auspices of the school faculty. An admission of ten and fifteen cents will be charged.

ATTENTION!
Turkey Raisers!

Monday, November 7
We Will Open Our Turkey Dressing Plants

and will be position to buy all the good, fat, well matured turkeys you can bring us. Turkeys this year, as usual, will be bought on grade; Poor turkeys marketed will only lower the price on all grades.

For the last 15 years we have furnished you a market second to none in Texas. We expect to do so again this year. Right at this time, we do not believe turkeys will bring as high prices as last year, due to the fact, that all commodities are much lower. As much as we would like to see turkeys be an outstanding commodity over all other farm products, we do not believe we will be able to pay an out of proportion price for them.

Make a close inspection of each and every turkey that you want to bring to market. Then and there apply the Golden Rule by asking yourself whether the turkeys you are offering for sale are of quality you would serve on your own table. If you do this, you may bring your turkeys to us with implicit confidence that you will receive the right grade and price.

ALWAYS SELL TURKEYS FREE OF FEED—Never tie turkey wings—We furnish Coops free of charge.

We buy and sell on the market every day in the year and have an unlimited outlet for quality turkeys. Your guess is as good as ours—what the price will be. We positively know we will be in position to pay the market price. We shall be glad to have you come in and talk the turkey situation over with us and shall appreciate any and all business you favor us with.

Lady Took Cardui And Got Rid of Pain In Her Side

"Last summer, my health was bad, so I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. H. E. Slaughter, of Norman, Okla. "My mother had given me Cardui in girlhood, so naturally I turned to it when I felt I needed it. I felt run-down and a general weakness. I had bad, dizzy headaches when everything would seem to dance before my eyes. My right side pained me so much, but since taking Cardui the pain has left me. I have taken several bottles of Cardui and have improved a great deal."

Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

Sharpe and Davilla Tie in Sunday Game

In the game Sunday afternoon between the Davilla and the Sharpe teams of the South Milam League the game was tied up in the ninth inning when Davilla scored two tallies to knot the score.

Davilla played up-hill game from the start as Sharpe scored a run in the first inning, added four more tallies in the second inning. In the third inning Davilla started their scoring when they pushed over three markers. In the fifth Sharpe made their sixth and Davilla came right back to score two runs in their half of the fifth. Davilla then surged to the front when they put over two runs in the sixth and added another in the succeddng inning. In the 8th Sharpe went in to the lead again when they pushed over three runs and their tenth and last score was made in the ninth. Going into the last half of the ninth Davilla was shy two scores of tying the game up but they succeeded in putting over the two scores which ended the game in a ten to ten score as darkness put an end to the game at this stage of the game.

Archie Peel went the whole route for the Sharpe team and the Davilla boys got twelve hits off his delivery. Davilla, as in the game of last Sunday, used three pitchers in stemming the hard hitting Sharp Shooters. B. Cook lasted one and one third innings when Hunt took over the assignment. He lasted until one man was out in the eighth inning when Harry White was called to the mound and finished the game. All told the Sharpe team collected seventeen hits to Davilla's twelve. Three home runs were made during the afternoon one by Hooks of Sharpe team and the others by Shelly and Kornegay of the Davilla team.

McElroy and Dockell umpired the game and gave perfect satisfaction in their department.

The third game will be played on Sunday, November 6th, weather permitting, but the site has not yet been determined. A very large crowd of Milam County fans witnessed the game and the enthusiasm was very high.

Chapter I

THE air in the room was tense. From the speaker of the radio poured a strong, dominating voice, arguing, urging. In the pauses there was silence,—the interpretative comment of the announcer. Then the hollow roar of a crowd, angry, menacing, rolled into the silent room.

Before the beautifully carved machine sat the Baroness Valerie von Sturm and Karl Kranz. They were members of the aristocracy of Sylvaria, a small principality located in a central position among the great European powers and had come to Geneva with the deputation from their land to attend the International Peace Conference.

Through the long days of conference upon ways and means to achieve world-wide disarmament there had been much wrangling, but steady progress had been made toward an understanding. So clear were the issues that a vote could be taken. Now on the last day of the conclave that ballot was being cast. The strong virile voice that flowed from the radio was that of Captain Paul Onslow, head of the Sylvarian delegation, explaining his vote against peace.

Silence in the room for a moment. The lovely young Baroness, sat utterly still, her long white fingers clasped in her lap. Her large, lustrous eyes were troubled as she raised them to Kranz who leaned, smoking, against the radio. Then the excited voice of the announcer:

"Sylvaria's vote means the treaty is defeated—for a unanimous vote is needed." Smothering his words came the ominous growl of the multitude. "Just listen to that crowd outside," commented the announcer. "Captain Onslow will need all his courage to face it."

With a swift movement, Valerie snapped off the radio. She rose. Karl was surprised.

"Let's keep it on, Valerie."

"No," agitatedly, "I'm afraid for him."

"When a man fights the world," Karl smiled, "he doesn't look for a Sunday school picnic."

"I know, but he's in real danger now." Her hand sought the bell rope hanging near the window.

"Paul's always been in danger," soothed Karl. "He thrives on it. Why are you so worried about him Valerie?"

"I'm Sylvarian too," her voice was unsteady. "And you know Captain Onslow is our guest here."

"I haven't been able to know anything else for the last two weeks."

"What do you mean?"

"I've hardly seen you since he arrived and you don't sit at that radio all day because you're patriotic."

Sturges, the butler, had entered softly in response to Valerie's ring. She turned to him.

"Tell my chauffeur I'm going with him to the Palace."

When Sturges had departed Karl voiced his alarm.

"You're not calling for Paul today, are you?"

"Of course."

"But you shouldn't. It's dangerous. Public feeling is against him. It's not safe for you to be with him."

"It's safer for him."

"I see." He looked for a long moment at her strained face. "Valerie you do care for me, don't you?"

"Certainly."

"But not as you once did. Oh, I'm not blind. You've been different ever since Paul came into this house. The glamour of his personality has swept you off your feet."

"I thought you were his friend."

"I am—but also in love with you. You can't disappoint me now. You have to marry me."

"I don't know my own mind," she temporized. "You'd want me to be sure, wouldn't you?"

"Of course."

"Then be a little patient." He smiled into her eyes. "That's better. And now I must run along."

On the lower floor near the stairway was the laboratory of her father. Baron von Sturm though an aristocrat was not a militaristic junker. He was a scientist of international repute. When Valerie told him of her intention he begged her to reconsider, yet his fondness was such that he could not restrain her when she insisted.

As the great car purred through the city, the Baroness was surprised to find the streets deserted. However as she neared the Peace Palace, she noticed groups assembling, gathering for some demonstration. Finally rounding a corner she saw a mob approaching. The leader carried a rude banner. It bore a skull and crossbones under which was printed "Onslow."

Directing the driver to keep to the curb, Valerie alighted when the car drew abreast of the standard bearer. White with fury she tore the banner from its staff and flung it into the face of the man who had carried it.

The mob stood silently waiting to see what its leader would do. For a thought, murder leaped in his eyes. Then he controlled himself. With mock politeness he held open the car door for Valerie and sneered:

"The pretty lady doesn't like my paper doll — but wait! Wait till we hang up Onslow's real carcass!"

Frightened Valerie sank back into the cushion and the car proceeded toward the Palace. There a huge crowd was waiting for the appearance of the delegates. Onslow's veto had halted the conference. Reports spread through the mob that an emergency session would be held at eleven that night to reach a final verdict.

One by one the national representatives emerged. At last Onslow appeared, a tall, dark, handsome man, a thin black line of mustache above his firm lips. The crowd surged toward him. Reporters questioned him. He passed them with a curt word, oblivious to the menacing temper of the mob which made his secretary Kellner tremble and pale.

An old woman sprang at Onslow, her fingers reaching for his eyes.

"War, you want war," she screamed. "You killed my son."

Guards dragged her away. Outwardly calm, Onslow passed through the crowd which watched him undecided but dangerous.

A block from the palace, a pretty girl came up. Although inattentive, Onslow sized her up as a woman of the town. As she passed she smiled provocatively. He drew away. When a policeman who saw the incident took her in charge, Onslow made no move in her behalf. Lost in thought he walked on. Suddenly he felt a tug at his coat. He looked down. A little girl was standing there beside him in Swiss country dress. She had a basket of flowers from which she offered him a bouquet of camelias.

"Won't you please sir? They're just five centimes."

"I have nothing that small," he smiled.

"I'll trust you—until tomorrow."

"Splendid," he replied, "that's a bargain."

He took the flowers from her confiding fingers, as a car slid up to the curb beside him. Valerie smiled from the shadowy interior as he entered.

"I'm sorry I kept you waiting," he apologized.

"I didn't mind," replied Valerie. She took his flowers. "How lovely." Then, smiling, "Is thoughtfulness one of your virtues?"

He rose to her humor. "Occasionally. This time it was thrust upon me."

Then it came, the sharp, startling report of a pistol shot. Valerie screamed. Dragging her with him Onslow crouched on the floor as a bullet shattered the limousine's rear glass.

My Favorite Recipes

by
Frances
Lee

"DO give us more good bran recipes. The whole family loved the Bran Griddle Cakes, and they certainly do solve the problem of getting bran into the diet," a woman wrote me after I gave Bran Griddle Cakes in my Cooking School of the Air, and I believe she was speaking for a lot of homemakers.

Here are a few suggestions that will make any breakfast or lunch a healthier one and a happier one:

Bran Doughnuts

3 cups sifted flour; 4½ teaspoons combination baking powder; 1½ teaspoons salt; ¼ teaspoon nutmeg; 2 tablespoons butter; ¾ cup sugar; 3 eggs, well beaten; ¾ cup milk; 1½ cups whole bran.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and nutmeg, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Combine eggs, milk, and whole bran. Add to sugar mixture and mix thoroughly. Add flour, beating after each addition until smooth. Chill until firm enough to roll. Roll 1/3 inch thick on slightly floured board and cut with floured doughnut cutter. Fry in deep fat (385° F.), turning frequently, until golden brown. Drain on unglazed paper. Sugar if desired. Makes 3 dozen doughnuts.

Raised Bran Rolls

2 cups milk, scalded; 2 cakes compressed yeast; 2 teaspoons salt; 4 tablespoons sugar; 2 egg yolks; 2½ cups sifted flour; 1/3 cup melted shortening; 2½ cups whole bran.

Cool milk to lukewarm. Pour into bowl and add crumbled yeast cakes, salt, sugar and egg yolks. Mix thoroughly. Add flour and beat vigorously with wooden spoon. Add shortening and beat again. Then add whole bran and continue beating 3 minutes. Allow dough to stand 5 minutes to thicken. Turn out on well-floured board. With spatula or spoon, fold edges of dough toward center. Continue until dough is well covered with flour and easy to handle. Knead until smooth. Place in well-greased bowl. Brush surface with melted shortening. Set in bowl of warm water, having water level with dough. Cover and let rise until double in bulk. Fold dough under and let rise again until double in bulk. Then fold dough under and let rise a third time. Shape pieces of dough into rolls, place in baking pan, and brush with melted butter. Let rise until double in bulk. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 15 to 20 minutes, depending upon size. Makes about 3 dozen rolls.

Bran Griddle Cakes

1¾ cups milk, 1 cup whole bran; 1½ cups sifted flour, 3 teaspoons combination baking powder; 2 teaspoons sugar; 1 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, well beaten, 1 tablespoon melted butter.

Pour milk over whole bran. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, sugar, and salt, and sift again. Add eggs to bran mixture. Add flour and blend. Add butter. Bake on hot, well-greased griddle. Serve hot with butter and syrup. Makes 24 cakes.

Black-Draught
Clears Up Sluggish, Dull Feeling

"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time, and find it gives relief for this trouble," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark. "I think it is good for spells caused from gas on the stomach. If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

P. S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Thedford's Black-Draught.

Boy Scout News

Troop 52—J. A. Lindle, Scoutmaster

Troop No. 52 held their regular meeting last Thursday night due to a play being held in the hall on Friday night. There were in attendance thirteen registered scouts, three boy visitors, R. A. Michalka, Grand Knight of the sponsoring body, the Scoutmaster and Assistant, and Committeeman Kunz. Second class work was taken up in the Patrol meeting and the games were conducted by Assistant Louis Matula and Senior Patrol leader C. W. Gjedde. A hot game of indoor football was the final episode. Assistant Louis Matula was elected Captain of 52s football team, and all scouts who want to play are urged to get behind Louis and be on hand Sunday afternoons for practice.

The feature of the evening was an address by Committeeman Kunz on 'Disclipine', and all were urged to keep in mind the Oath and Law on Halloween night, and have their fun without destroying some one else's property or causing inconvenience. Scouts Richard Houston, Edward Schiller, Jimmie and Johnnie Stanislaw received the Tenderfoot award at the last Court of Honor. Due to an error these names were omitted from the Court of Honor news last week.

The boys of Troop No. 52 did their good turn for the American Legion by sweeping out the K. C. Hall and arranging the chairs and otherwise putting the hall in order for the play presented under the auspices of the Legion, and also by surrendering our regular meeting night to them.

Troop No. 53, J. W. Haygood Scoutmaster

Regular meeting was held Friday night. A report was made of the oppossum hunt last week, when Mr. Caperton and our scoutmaster took the Black Bear Patrol hunting out on Bear Creek. O, yes! Mr. S. E. Brogdon was with us. Oh, yes! we had good luck—only caught two. We wanted to leave some out there in the woods for the other Patrols who will go at a later date. Mr. Caperton surely has a good 'possum dog, and we are very glad that he was kind enough to take us.

We held some discussion in regards to the new troop, and will again state that all boys who are 12 years of age and who want to become scouts, see Mr. Haygood, our scoutmaster and he will enroll you.

If Your Doctor Was Your Cook—You Would Never Need Medicine

Physicians and Scientists Now Know that the Body is Composed of Eleven Minerals and Six Vitamins All of which are Contained in Natural Foods.

Modern, Refined Foods, Improper Cooking and Poorly Balanced Diet Rob the Body of these Essential Elements so Necessary to Health. Science finds New Way to supply These Deficiencies and Rebuild the Body.

LEE'S
MINERAL COMPOUND
with Vitamins

Supplies the System with a Balanced Proportion of the 11 Essential Minerals Combined with Vitamins.

CONTAINS

IRON—for building rich, red blood-cells and a tonic upon the nerve centers.
IODINE—as a stimulant to the thyroid gland and a preventive of rheumatism.
CALCIUM—for the building of cartilege, bones, tendons and muscles.
COPPER—which is a valuable treatment in cases of malnutrition and emaciation.
CARBON—which is a necessary element in the perfect balance of the body.
MAGNESIUM—as a stimulant to the glands of the intestinal tract and to eliminate metabolic poisons.
MANGANESE—a valuable treatment in cases of deficient nerve nutrition and neurasthenia.
PHOSPHOROUS—a valuable aid in treatment of nervous exhaustion, neuralgia and skin diseases.
POTASSIUM—which has a marked effect upon metabolism and is an essential to vital activity.
SODIUM—which supplies the deficiency of phosphates and acts as a corrective of constipation.
SULPHUR—an important element in nutrition and an essential to the health of albuminous organs and tissues.
SILICA—which appears in every healthy human being and is an essential element of the body.
VITAMINS—without which, it is believed the body would wither and die.

A Food Vitalizer

NOT A PATENT MEDICINE
CONTAINS NO ALCOHOL

Medical science, constantly searching for ways to prolong life, frequently come forward with startling statements of their findings, but no more astounding announcement has been made in recent years than the statement of an eminent Chemist who now declares that "There is no natural death. All deaths from so-called natural causes are merely the end point of progressive acid saturation." An amazing statement indeed but a warning, that if heeded, should improve the health and well being, increase the joy of living, and prolong the lives of millions of men, women and children who might otherwise drag through a weary life to an untimely end.

ACIDITY KILLS MILLIONS

Health authorities now agree that 91% of all diseases originate in the stomach and are caused by poor cooking, improper diet, and the eating of highly refined foods. Your doctor knows that the 11 essential Minerals and all Vitamins are contained in foods in their natural state and could he live with you constantly, carefully select and prepare everything you eat, you would never need medicines of any kind. This being impossible, science has been searching for years, trying to compound a formula that would make up for the deficiencies of these vital elements—and at last their efforts have been rewarded.

AMAZING NEW COMPOUND

LEE'S MINERAL COMPOUND, a new and revolutionary formula, actually supplies the system with these vital elements so necessary to health and happiness. It contains the eleven essential Minerals in well balanced proportion, together with Vitamins, and is an invaluable aid to nature in the building of blood, bone, nerve and tissue.

Don't Let Them Count You Out!

It's So Easy Now to Be Strong and Healthy.

Lee's Mineral Compound Will Build You Up

It will rid your system of excess acid, sweep away the dangerous poisons, supply the body with the needed minerals, stimulate the organs of digestion and assimilation, build rich, red blood, clear the skin, give you a keen, hearty appetite, help you to get sound, refreshing sleep, restore health, strength and vitality and enable you to enjoy life to the fullest.

Make This 10 Day Test Convince Yourself!

Stop dosing yourself with "patent medicines," harsh purgatives, oils and cathartics for just 10 days. Go to your nearest Druggist and secure a bottle of LEE'S MINERAL COMPOUND. Take it regularly and watch the results. You'll be amazed at the feeling of renewed strength and vigor that soon appears. No narcotics or alcohol to "boost you up" but a natural method of restoring health and energy.

ARMISTICE DAY

1918 - 1932

Shadows of the Past That Return for a Day

Gone from the papers are headlines telling anxious civilians of the tide of battle. Died away are the echoes of our cheers as America's Finest marched forth to war. Now our thoughts turn to business conditions and football scores. The very sireens and whistles that hailed golden victory 14 years ago summon workers to task or leisure.

But this is an Anniversary. Just now let us reflect in gratitude on the boys who have done their bit and who have turned their efforts to peace and to America.

The sale will continue for some time and buying opportunities were never greater than at ths time at Bradbury's.

"Back Street" Love Drama Opens At The Milam Theater Sunday

One of the outstanding screen dramas of recent years will open at Milam Theatre Sunday, November 6.

The picture is 'Back Street' adapted from the widely read novel by Fannie Hurst, with Irene Dunne and John Boles in the featured roles, and directed by the master of human, domestic drama, John M. Stahl.

'Back Street' tells the story of a woman who considered no sacrifice too great to make in the name of love, and a man who gave freely of his love but at the same time retained his social position as a husband and father. The story covers a span of 20 years, and is said to give especially affecting picture of the trials of two people whose love is outside the law, notwithstanding its sincerity and depth.

It is one of Universal's most ambitious productions of the season, and presents to Miss Dunne and Boles the most sympathetic roles of their careers.

Need for aid to Destitute Stressed by Chairities Here

The needs are greater than last year. Everyone should help. Why?

1. Duty as good citizen to provide food and medicine for the hungry and sick and wood and clothing for the needy.

2. Self protection—insurance against stealing and other crimes.

Every local application will be carefully investigated before aid is given, by one of the following committees: white cases investigated by Mrs. W. O. Triggs, Mrs. W. G. Gillis, Mrs. Cora Cammer and Mrs. J. P. Love; negro cases investigated by O. J. Thomas, A. Adams and W. H. Phillips; Mexican applicants investigated by R. B. Rylander and Ralph Cardenas.

Transients will be looked after by sheriff's force who will provide food for the hungry and a place to sleep for one night, and speed them on their way.

Under no circumstances will money be given to applicants for charity.

Everyone who is helped is expected to give work in return for food issued in order to keep their self respect and strengthen the morale of the community.

The Lions' Club has taken over the difficult job of keeping in touch with both the unimployed and those who donate—and the Rev. O. C. Acrey or someone of his committee will be at his office (telephone 733) between 8 and 9 a. m. each week day.

Nothing in this world is 100 per cent perfect. If we make a mistake please do not overlook it, but call the chairman, Rev. J. P. Love, and he will endeavor to correct any erroe or misunderstanding.

In order that there be no duplication we ask you to co-operate in every way with the United Workers this season. Do not feed anyone who solicits you or give them anything, but send those who live in the city to Mrs. Cora Cammer, those who live in the county to Judge W. G. Gillis; those who are passing through to the sheriff's office, and we assure you that every case will have our careful attention.

SHARPE

Sharp and Davilla Tie Up in Second Game of Final Series.

The second game of the Sharpe Davilla finals ended at dark Sunday afternoon in an eight to eight deadlock on Davilla territory.

Hook forged the Cats in the lead in the second ending as he polled out a homer with two men on the bases, however, wit hthein heavy artillery the Davilla nine tallied the score later in the game. Numerous base hits were turned by both squads evenly divided among the players.

Arch Peele held down the mound position for the locals and Rosenburg caught, while the Davilla team shifted pitchers three times during the affair.

Since the neighbors tied up the Cats won the first game Sharp has two more chances at the victory, but they feel sure that next Sunday's game which will be played at Rockdale will be final, for the writers predict a 7 to 4 victory for the Cats.

Play at Sharpe Friday Night.

A three act comedy "A Minute Til Twelve' will be presented at the High School Auditorium next Friday night under auspices of the school faculty. An admission of ten and fifteen cents will be charged.

ATTENTION!
Turkey Raisers!

Monday, November 7

We Will Open Our Turkey Dressing Plants

and will be position to buy all the good, fat, well matured turkeys you can bring us. Turkeys this year, as usual, will be bought on grade; Poor turkeys marketed will only lower the price on all grades.

For the last 15 years we have furnished you a market second to none in Texas. We expect to do so again this year. Right at this time, we do not believe turkeys will bring as high prices as last year, due to the fact, that all commodities are much lower. As much as we would like to see turkeys be an outstanding commodity over all other farm products, we do not believe we will be able to pay an out of proportion price for them.

Make a close inspection of each and every turkey that you want to bring to market. Then and there apply the Golden Rule by asking yourself whether the turkeys you are offering for sale are of quality you would serve on your own table. If you do this, you may bring your turkeys to us with implicit confidence that you will receive the right grade and price.

ALWAYS SELL TURKEYS FREE OF FEED—Never tie turkey wings—We furnish Coops free of charge.

We buy and sell on the market every day in the year and have an unlimited outlet for quality turkeys. Your guess is as good as ours—what the price will be. We positively know we will be in position to pay the market price. We shall be glad to have you come in and talk the turkey situation over with us and shall appreciate any and all business you favor us with.

Lady Took Cardui And Got Rid of Pain In Her Side

"Last summer, my health was bad, so I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. H. E. Slaughter, of Norman, Okla. "My mother had given me Cardui in girlhood, so naturally I turned to it when I felt I needed it. I felt run-down and a general weakness. I had bad, dizzy headaches when everything would seem to dance before my eyes. My right side pained me so much, but since taking Cardui the pain has left me. I have taken several bottles of Cardui and have improved a great deal."

Cardui is sold at drug stores here.

Sharpe and Davilla Tie in Sunday Game

In the game Sunday afternoon between the Davilla and the Sharpe teams of the South Milam League the game was tied up in the ninth inning when Davilla scored two tallies to knot the score.

Davilla played up-hill game from the start as Sharpe scored a run in the first inning, added four more tallies in the second inning. In the third inning Davilla started their scoring when they pushed over three markers. In the fifth Sharpe made their sixth and Davilla came right back to score two runs in their half of the fifth. Davilla then surged to the front when they put over two runs in the sixth and added another in the succeddng inning. In the 8th Sharpe went in to the lead again when they pushed over three runs and their tenth and last score was made in the ninth. Going into the last half of the ninth Davilla was shy two scores of tying the game up but they succeeded in putting over the two scores which ended the game in a ten to ten score as darkness put an end to the game at this stage of the game.

Archie Peel went the whole route for the Sharpe team and the Davilla boys got twelve hits off his delivery. Davilla, as in the game of last Sunday, used three pitchers in stemming the hard hitting Sharp Shooters. B. Cook lasted one and one third innings when Hunt took over the assignment. He lasted until one man was out in the eighth inning when Harry White was called to the mound and finished the game. All told the Sharpe team collected seventeen hits to Davilla's twelve. Three home runs were made during the afternoon one by Hooks of Sharpe team and the others by Shelly and Kornegay of the Davilla team.

McElroy and Dockell umpired the game and gave perfect satisfaction in their department.

The third game will be played on Sunday, November 6th, weather permitting, but the site has not yet been determined. A very large crowd of Milam County fans witnessed the game and the enthusiasm was very high.

Chapter I

THE air in the room was tense. From the speaker of the radio poured a strong, dominating voice, arguing, urging. In the pauses there was silence,—the interpretative comment of the announcer. Then the hollow roar of a crowd, angry, menacing, rolled into the silent room.

Before the beautifully carved machine sat the Baroness Valerie von Sturm and Karl Kranz. They were members of the aristocracy of Sylvaria, a small principality located in a central position among the great European powers and had come to Geneva with the deputation from their land to attend the International Peace Conference.

Through the long days of conference upon ways and means to achieve world-wide disarmament there had been much wrangling, but steady progress had been made toward an understanding. So clear were the issues that a vote could be taken. Now on the last day of the conclave that ballot was being cast. The strong virile voice that flowed from the radio was that of Captain Paul Onslow, head of the Sylvarian delegation, explaining his vote against peace.

Silence in the room for a moment. The lovely young Baroness, sat utterly still, her long white fingers clasped in her lap. Her large, lustrous eyes were troubled as she raised them to Kranz who leaned, smoking, against the radio. Then the excited voice of the announcer:

"Sylvaria's vote means the treaty is defeated—for a unanimous vote is needed." Smothering his words came the ominous growl of the multitude. "Just listen to that crowd outside," commented the announcer. "Captain Onslow will need all his courage to face it."

With a swift movement, Valerie snapped off the radio. She rose. Karl was surprised.

"Let's keep it on, Valerie."

"No," agitatedly, "I'm afraid for him."

"When a man fights the world," Karl smiled, "he doesn't look for a Sunday school picnic."

"I know, but he's in real danger now." Her hand sought the bell rope hanging near the window.

"Paul's always been in danger," soothed Karl. "He thrives on it. Why are you so worried about him Valerie?"

"I'm Sylvarian too," her voice was unsteady. "And you know Captain Onslow is our guest here."

"I haven't been able to know anything else for the last two weeks."

"What do you mean?"

"I've hardly seen you since he arrived and you don't sit at that radio all day because you're patriotic."

Sturges, the butler, had entered softly in response to Valerie's ring. She turned to him.

"Tell my chauffeur I'm going with him to the Palace."

When Sturges had departed Karl voiced his alarm.

"You're not calling for Paul today, are you?"

"Of course."

"But you shouldn't. It's dangerous. Public feeling is against him. It's not safe for you to be with him."

"It's safer for him."

"I see." He looked for a long moment at her strained face. "Valerie you do care for me, don't you?"

"Certainly."

"But not as you once did. Oh, I'm not blind. You've been different ever since Paul came into this house. The glamour of his personality has swept you off your feet."

"I thought you were his friend."

"I am—but also in love with you. You can't disappoint me now. You have to marry me."

"I don't know my own mind," she temporized. "You'd want me to be sure, wouldn't you?"

"Of course."

"Then be a little patient." He smiled into her eyes. "That's better. And now I must run along."

On the lower floor near the stairway was the laboratory of her father. Baron von Sturm though an aristocrat was not a militaristic junker. He was a scientist of international repute. When Valerie told him of her intention he begged her to reconsider, yet his fondness was such that he could not restrain her when she insisted.

As the great car purred through the city, the Baroness was surprised to find the streets deserted. However as she neared the Peace Palace, she noticed groups assembling, gathering for some demonstration. Finally rounding a corner she saw a mob approaching. The leader carried a rude banner. It bore a skull and crossbones under which was printed "Onslow."

Directing the driver to keep to the curb, Valerie alighted when the car drew abreast of the standard bearer. White with fury she tore the banner from its staff and flung it into the face of the man who had carried it.

The mob stood silently waiting to see what its leader would do. For a thought, murder leaped in his eyes. Then he controlled himself. With mock politeness he held open the car door for Valerie and sneered:

"The pretty lady doesn't like my paper doll — but wait! Wait till we hang up Onslow's real carcass!"

Frightened Valerie sank back into the cushion and the car proceeded toward the Palace. There a huge crowd was waiting for the appearance of the delegates. Onslow's veto had halted the conference. Reports spread through the mob that an emergency session would be held at eleven that night to reach a final verdict.

One by one the national representatives emerged. At last Onslow appeared, a tall, dark, handsome man, a thin black line of mustache above his firm lips. The crowd surged toward him. Reporters questioned him. He passed them with a curt word, oblivious to the menacing temper of the mob which made his secretary Kellner tremble and pale.

An old woman sprang at Onslow, her fingers reaching for his eyes.

"War, you want war," she screamed. "You killed my son."

Guards dragged her away. Outwardly calm, Onslow passed through the crowd which watched him undecided but dangerous.

A block from the palace, a pretty girl came up. Although inattentive, Onslow sized her up as a woman of the town. As she passed she smiled provocatively. He drew away. When a policeman who saw the incident took her in charge, Onslow made no move in her behalf. Lost in thought he walked on. Suddenly he felt a tug at his coat. He looked down. A little girl was standing there beside him in Swiss country dress. She had a basket of flowers from which she offered him a bouquet of camelias.

"Won't you please sir? They're just five centimes."

"I have nothing that small," he smiled.

"I'll trust you—until tomorrow."

"Splendid," he replied, "that's a bargain."

He took the flowers from her confiding fingers, as a car slid up to the curb beside him. Valerie smiled from the shadowy interior as he entered.

"I'm sorry I kept you waiting," he apologized.

"I didn't mind," replied Valerie. She took his flowers. "How lovely." Then, smiling, "Is thoughtfulness one of your virtues?"

He rose to her humor. "Occasionally. This time it was thrust upon me."

Then it came, the sharp, startling report of a pistol shot. Valerie screamed. Dragging her with him Onslow crouched on the floor as a bullet shattered the limousine's rear glass.

My Favorite Recipes

by
Frances
Barton

"DO give us more good bran recipes. The whole family loved the Bran Griddle Cakes, and they certainly do solve the problem of getting bran into the diet," a woman wrote me after I gave Bran Griddle Cakes in my Cooking School of the Air, and I believe she was speaking for a lot of homemakers.

Here are a few suggestions that will make any breakfast or lunch a healthier one and a happier one:

Bran Doughnuts

3 cups sifted flour; 4½ teaspoons combination baking powder; 1½ teaspoons salt; ¼ teaspoon nutmeg; 2 tablespoons butter; ¾ cup sugar; 3 eggs, well beaten; ¾ cup milk; 1½ cups whole bran.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, salt, and nutmeg, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Combine eggs, milk, and whole bran. Add to sugar mixture and mix thoroughly. Add flour, beating after each addition until smooth. Chill until firm enough to roll. Roll 1/3 inch thick on slightly floured board and cut with floured doughnut cutter. Fry in deep fat (385° F.), turning frequently, until golden brown. Drain on unglazed paper. Sugar if desired. Makes 3 dozen doughnuts.

Raised Bran Rolls

2 cups milk, scalded; 2 cakes compressed yeast; 2 teaspoons salt; 4 tablespoons sugar; 2 egg yolks; 2½ cups sifted flour; 1/3 cup melted shortening; 2½ cups whole bran.

Cool milk to lukewarm. Pour into bowl and add crumbled yeast cakes, salt, sugar and egg yolks. Mix thoroughly. Add flour and beat vigorously with wooden spoon. Add shortening and beat again. Then add whole bran and continue beating 3 minutes. Allow dough to stand 5 minutes to thicken. Turn out on well-floured board. With spatula or spoon, fold edges of dough toward center. Continue until dough is well covered with flour and easy to handle. Knead until smooth. Place in well-greased bowl. Brush surface with melted shortening. Set in bowl of warm water, having water level with dough. Cover and let rise until double in bulk. Fold dough under and let rise again until double in bulk. Then fold dough under and let rise a third time. Shape pieces of dough into rolls, place in baking pan, and brush with melted butter. Let rise until double in bulk. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 15 to 20 minutes, depending upon size. Makes about 3 dozen rolls.

Bran Griddle Cakes

1¾ cups milk, 1 cup whole bran; 1½ cups sifted flour, 3 teaspoons combination baking powder; 2 teaspoons sugar; 1 teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, well beaten, 1 tablespoon melted butter.

Pour milk over whole bran. Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, sugar, and salt, and sift again. Add eggs to bran mixture. Add flour and blend. Add butter. Bake on hot, well-greased griddle. Serve hot with butter and syrup. Makes 24 cakes.

Black-Draught
Clears Up Sluggish,
Dull Feeling

"I have used Thedford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time, and find it gives relief for this trouble," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark. "I think it is good for spells caused from gas on the stomach. If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."

P. S. — If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Thedford's Black-Draught.

Boy Scout News

Troop 52—J. A. Lindle, Scoutmaster

Troop No. 52 held their regular meeting last Thursday night due to a play being held in the hall on Friday night. There were in attendance thirteen registered scouts, three boy visitors, R. A. Michalka, Grand Knight of the sponsoring body, the Scoutmaster and Assistant, and Committeeman Kunz. Second class work was taken up in the Patrol meeting and the games were conducted by Assistant Louis Matula and Senior Patrol leader C. W. Gjedde. A hot game of indoor football was the final episode. Assistant Louis Matula was elected Captain of 52s football team, and all scouts who want to play are urged to get behind Louis and be on hand Sunday afternoons for practice.

The feature of the evening was an address by Committeeman Kunz on 'Disclipine', and all were urged to keep in mind the Oath and Law on Halloween night, and have their fun without destroying some one else's property or causing inconvenience. Scouts Richard Houston, Edward Schiller, Jimmie and Johnnie Stanislaw received the Tenderfoot award at the last Court of Honor. Due to an error these names were omitted from the Court of Honor news last week.

The boys of Troop No. 52 did their good turn for the American Legion by sweeping out the K. C. Hall and arranging the chairs and otherwise putting the hall in order for the play presented under the auspices of the Legion, and also by surrendering our regular meeting night to them.

Troop No. 53, J. W. Haygood Scoutmaster

Regular meeting was held Friday night. A report was made of the oppossum hunt last week, when Mr. Caperton and our scoutmaster took the Black Bear Patrol hunting out on Bear Creek. O, yes! Mr. S. E. Brogdon was with us. Oh, yes! we had good luck—only caught two. We wanted to leave some out there in the woods for the other Patrols who will go at a later date. Mr. Caperton surely has a good 'possum dog, and we are very glad that he was kind enough to take us.

We held some discussion in regards to the new troop, and will again state that all boys who are 12 years of age and who want to become scouts, see Mr. Haygood, our scoutmaster and he will enroll you.

If Your Doctor Was Your Cook—You Would Never Need Medicine

Physicians and Scientists Now Know that the Body is Composed of Eleven Minerals and Six Vitamins All of which are Contained in Natural Foods.

Modern, Refined Foods, Improper Cooking and Poorly Balanced Diet Rob the Body of these Essential Elements so Necessary to Health. Science finds New Way to supply These Deficiencies and Rebuild the Body.

Medical science, constantly searching for ways to prolong life, frequently come forward with startling statements of their findings, but no more astounding announcement has been made in recent years than the statement of an eminent Chemist who now declares that "There is no natural death. All deaths from so-called natural causes are merely the end point of progressive acid saturation." An amazing statement indeed but a warning, that if heeded, should improve the health and well being, increase the joy of living, and prolong the lives of millions of men, women and children who might otherwise drag through a weary life to an untimely end.

ACIDITY KILLS MILLIONS

Health authorities now agree that 91% of all diseases originate in the stomach and are caused by poor cooking, improper diet, and the eating of highly refined foods. Your doctor knows that the 11 essential Minerals and all Vitamins are contained in foods in their natural state and could he live with you constantly, carefully select and prepare everything you eat, you would never need medicines of any kind. This being impossible, science has been searching for years, trying to compound a formula that would make up for the deficiencies of these vital elements—and at last their efforts have been rewarded.

AMAZING NEW COMPOUND

LEE'S MINERAL COMPOUND, a new and revolutionary formula, actually supplies the system with these vital elements so necessary to health and happiness. It contains the eleven essential Minerals in well balanced proportion, together with Vitamins, and is an invaluable aid to nature in the building of blood, bone, nerve and tissue.

CARBON—which is a necessary element in the perfect balance of the body.
MAGNESIUM—as a stimulant to the glands of the intestinal tract and to eliminate metabolic poisons.
MANGANESE—a valuable treatment in cases of deficient nerve nutrition and neurasthenia.
PHOSPHOROUS—a valuable aid in treatment of nervous exhaustion, neuralgia and skin diseases.
POTASSIUM—which has a marked effect upon metabolism and is an essential to vital activity.
SODIUM—which supplies the deficiency of phosphates and acts as a corrective of constipation.
SULPHUR—an important element in nutrition and an essential to the health of albuminous organs and tissues.
SILICA—which appears in every healthy human being and is an essential element of the body.
VITAMINS—without which, it is believed the body would wither and die.

SMOOTH tires don't hold on wet pavement. Punctures are more dangerous when it's slippery. Changing tires is also dangerous and disagreeable. Better put on new Goodyears now—they'll protect you, save you money on repairs and delays, and still be like new when spring arrives.

ARMISTICE DAY

1918 - 1932

Shadows of the Past That Return for a Day

Gone from the papers are headlines telling anxious civilians of the tide of battle. Died away are the echoes of our cheers as America's Finest marched forth to war. Now our thoughts turn to business conditions and football scores. The very sireens and whistles that hailed golden victory 14 years ago summon workers to task or leisure.

But this is an Anniversary. Just now let us reflect in gratitude on the boys who have done their bit and who have turned their efforts to peace and to America.
